

Weekly Update for Nov. 18th - Nov. 27th

Tests will be on Friday, Nov. 22nd.

Language Arts: See pencil page

Math:

We are enjoying two-dimensional shapes. We will combine shapes to create composite shapes and will move on to learn about fractions: halves, fourths and thirds.

Social Studies: 1. Our Salute to Veterans was wonderful!! Thank you for your support.

2. We are having fun with weather. We learned how to read a thermometer and will learn about clouds and wind.

3. We are completing our study of the first Thanksgiving. Test on Monday, Nov. 25th. A Study Guide will come home soon.

*This Sunday the folks at Oliver Miller Homestead are holding their Thanksgiving feast, which is similar to the way the Pilgrims would have lived. I will be going there around 2:30 and would love it if some of the class (and their families) would like to join me to walk around and learn more about what life was like in the 18th century. (Note that there is $2 admission per person fee on event days.) Oliver Miller is located in South Park on Stone Mamse Dr. I will be giving bonus points to any student that attends and does a show-n-tell about it. If you cannot come this Sunday, they are also open on Dec. 8th.

*Throughout the month of December, we will learn about winter holidays around the world. A calendar highlighting what we will learn each day will be coming home soon. Please review it and ask your child about our special adventures.

FYI

1. Our Fall Feast is on Wednesday. Please come a few minutes early as parking can be tricky and the kids get anxious if you aren't here when we come down to meet you in the gym.
2. Keep reading and recording books for the Principal's Challenge. Return all booklogs by Friday, Nov. 22nd.
3. A book order came home. Orders are due by Wed. the 20th. Our online code is: JHDNX. If you would like to order books as a gift, send me a note or message and I'll contact you when the orders come in and we can make arrangements to pick them up in the office.

From my home to yours, have a blessed Thanksgiving! Mrs. Lindsay
